

The President of Latvia expresses his concern about the developments in Turkey

 Published more than 8 years ago

Published: 16.07.2016.

“Turkey must return to the constitutional order and operation of democratic institutions respecting the rule of law and fundamental human rights. I call on the Latvian nationals not to attend public events in Turkey and keep up with the information provided by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Latvia,” stated President of Latvia Raimonds Vējonis.

Related topics

Raimonds Vējonis

<https://www.president.lv/en/article/president-latvia-expresses-his-concern-about-developments-turkey>