

Former ambassador of Latvia to the World Trade Organisation Inga Ernstsone will take the place of Alise Pīka as the Economic Policy Adviser to the President of Latvia during her leave

Published more than 3 years ago

Published: 16.08.2021.

International cooperation and economics expert Inga Ernstsone will take over the duties of President's economic policy adviser from Alise Pīka starting today, 16 August.

Ms Ernstsone has served as Latvia's ambassador to the World Trade Organisation, Deputy Head of Latvia's Diplomatic Mission in the United Kingdom, Austria, Slovakia, Slovenia, Hungary, Switzerland, Lichtenstein, and has previously worked as the Director of Economic Relations and Development Cooperation Department of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Inga Ernstsone has master's degree in business management and German language and literature.

Related topics

Egils Levits

<https://www.president.lv/en/article/former-ambassador-latvia-world-trade-organisation-inga-ernstsone-will-take-place-alise-pika-economic-policy-adviser-president-latvia-during-her-leave>